DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. Acknowledgment is made of receipt of applicant's Information Disclosure Statement (PTO-1449) filed August 25, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bechtel et al. (US 6,873,091).

Bechtel et al. teach an organic light-emitting diode (OLED) device having green emitting regions disposed over a substrate, and wherein each green emitting region further includes (Fig.1):

One or more light-emitting layer (6 & 7); a reflector (negative electrode Al, Col.3, lines 59-63) and a semitransparent reflector (positive electrode silver, Col.3, lines 47-51) respectively disposed on opposite sides of the light-emitting layer and arranged to resonate light produced by such layer such that the light has a substantially green spectral component; and a yellow color filter (9) element disposed in relationship to each green emitting region to produce green light (Col.3, lines 11-67).

Bechtel et al. do not teach red emitting region. However, Bechtel et al. teach the spectra range of the light passed by the cut-off filter (yellow filter) corresponds to the radiation emitted by the electroluminescent layer and the cut-off wavelength is 500 nm. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form yellow filter on the red emitting layer since the yellow filter transmit electromagnetic radiation whose wavelength is higher than a cut-off wavelength 500 nm without reflection within the display device.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 7-25-05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Bechtel et al. do not mention or suggest that there are two reflector, a reflector layer and a semitransparent reflector layer. This is not convincing. Although Bechtel et al. do not use term "reflector and semitransparent reflector", the positive electrode silver and negative electrode aluminum would function as the claimed term "reflector and semitransparent reflector" because a structure of this application also includes aluminum and silver for reflector and semitransparent reflector, respectively (See fig. 1).

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 2811

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
